

Equine Assisted Learning Retreat for Veterans

Spend a weekend at the UpReach Therapeutic Equestrian Center in Goffstown, NH engaging in equine assisted learning activities. This program will be facilitated by a team skilled in working with veterans and the issues they face.

Participants will spend the weekend building relationships with horses. Working with horses fosters resiliency, leading to growth and well-being for both the humans and the horses. It is not a horseback-riding program; it is an experiential program designed to bring about change for the humans and the horses through practicing communication, leadership, authenticity and relational skills.

Lodging, meals and activities provided at no cost to the participants, but they must arrange their own transportation to/from Goffstown, NH.
